SPECIAL APPEAL FOR DONATIONS

Over the past one month, the state of Kerala has been afflicted by devastating floods. Besides causing destruction of homes, business and crippling the transportation system, these floods have affected over 700,000 people leaving around 400 dead and thousands missing.

In these testing times, I appeal to all of you to help the people of Kerala by donating generously. The donations can be made to the "Chief Minister Distress Relief Fund" (CMDRF) through the link given hereunder to help the flood-affected people of Kerala. You'll immediately get a receipt and an income tax exemption certificate, also from this link.
